QWP expands the firm's Litigation and Dispute Resolution team with the hire of Melvin Lum

QWP, a multi-disciplinary law practice is delighted to welcome Melvin Lum, who joins the firm as a Director in the firm's and Litigation, Arbitration & Dispute Resolution practice with effect from 19 April 2021.

Melvin, who has over 16 years of experience, focuses on banking, finance-related, corporate and commercial disputes. His practice has seen him act in aviation, insolvency, insurance, professional negligence, shareholders, telecommunication, tenancy and transnational disputes.

Melvin graduated from the National University of Singapore and was admitted to the Singapore Bar in 2004. He won an Advocacy award for being one of the top performers in his cohort and is now an advocacy trainer with the Singapore Institute of Legal Education.

Lawrence Quahe, Managing Director of QWP commented: "We are delighted to have Melvin join the firm and his addition to the firm's disputes resolution practice group is timely as we continue to see growth in that practice area."
